

Jasmine
(Kriššák)

Jasmine, I wanna take it back Jasmine, we took the wrong way Trust me, I wanna change that time Trust me, it was a fault of mine

Dread in your eyes just feel this crime guilty since time's been crossing the line

Jasmine, we broke our chains Jasmine, let us try again Restore what has been crashed Restore that treasure chest

Hope in your eyes just feel this lie runs thru' the times
our love died

Jasmine, my heart is dead Jasmine, I wanna hold my breath Jasmine, without your smile Jasmine, will end my life

Pain in your eyes just feel my sparks
during the times
the end is dark...
